It was a pleasant midnight. I was sleeping tightly. My sleep was interrupted by a blasting sound. I was alone ... My parents were away for a week & I was staying with my Uncle Ron. Since he is deaf, he slept peacefully unaware of the blast. I was totally losing my heart when I realized that there is something mysterious happening in the garden. I didn't get enough time to wake Uncle up & inform him. I grabbed a torch from my cupboard & rushed towards the place from which I heard the loud sound. I used to be a coward till that time. But at that moment, I gained some courage & that was for the first time in my life! I stood motionlessly at the sight of many UFOs firing at Earth from the clear sky. I couldn't believe my eyes! Is this the end of our planet? I screamed for help. But there was no use of doing that! We lived in a lonely place at the hilltop. So there wasn't anyone nearby to help us. Since Uncle Ron was deaf, he slept inside the house unaware of the destruction happening outside. Suddenly I heard a robotic announcement from one of the UFOs. It was as follows:

“Dear inhabitants of Earth,

We are the aliens from Planet Zoono who have come here on Earth to take over it. Good-Bye forever to all humans...

Well Earth, Time to Take You On!!!! ...”

This announcement ended with a fireball from the UFOs hitting the Earth... This shook the earth surface... I turned white due to fear! I couldn't maintain the courage I gained a few minutes before I came to know what was going on...

I had no more lifelines other than Uncle Ron! I managed to escape from the firing by aliens & reach Uncle Ron who was lying motionlessly on his bed. My heart was broken to find him unconscious. He was hurt by the firing! I was no other option other than to prepare myself for death!

I cried aloud, “Oh God, I'm coming to you!!!” ... Suddenly, I heard someone speaking, “Son, I am always with you!” A bright light fell all over the entire place. It was from the sky! As soon as the light came, all the UFOs disappeared & all the destruction caused by them also vanished! My head felt to be heavy & I fainted seeing the mysterious smile of the unknown life-saver! When I regained my consciousness, I was on my bed! My Uncle was making coffee for me! He said he had a nice sleep yesterday!!! He isn't aware of what happened at night!
